APPEARANCES

WENDY TUCKER, counsel, present for Petitioner(s).

Representative Allison Borkenheim, specially appearing for Tri City Healthcare District, Petitioner.

Kathleen Sterling, Respondent is present.

Attorney Scott A. McMillan appears on behalf of the Defendant.

10:07 A.M. This being the time set for further COURT TRIAL in the above-entitled matter, having been continued from Wednesday, March 30, 2011, comes now Attorney Wendy Tucker, on behalf of the Petitioner(s). And Attorney Scott McMillan appears on behalf of the Respondent. All parties are present.

The Court states that the cases of Tri-City vs. Sterling were consolidated for purposes of trial, however will rule on and make findings with respect to each individual case.

Under Soskins, the Court summarizes the testimony and makes a finding that Ms. Sterling made no verbal threats, there is no proof of assault or battery and Petitioner(s) did not prove there was a credible threat of violence.

The Court releases exhibits submitted to the proffering party.

Restraining order as requested is denied without prejudice in its entirety.
